

Love One Another As I Have Loved You

Who will inherit your faith, love and generosity after you're gone?

Your family, your dear friends, your mentors, teachers and spiritual guides. Ensure that each receives a piece of your legacy exactly as you intended by properly naming them as beneficiaries of your retirement plan accounts, life insurance policies and other assets.

For guidance on how to create an inheritance for those you love, visit www.archbalt.org/cff and select the “Retirement Plan Assets” quick link.
